Object and Reasons.-The object of this Bill is to impose a special tax on companies (other than those which have no share capital) on their excess profits, namely, the amount by which the total income of a company as reduced by certain types of income and certain sums and the income-tax and super-tax payable by it exceeds a sum of ten per cent. of its capital reserves and certain borrowed moneys or a sum of

Rs. 2 lakhs, whichever is higher.

Act 41 of 1975.- The object of this Bill is to amend the income-tax Act, 1961, the Wealth Tax Act, 1957, the Gift Tax Act, 1958 and the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964. The proposals relating to the amendments to these enactments have been formulated after a detailed examination of the recommendations of the Direct Taxes Enquiry Committee (Wanchoo Committee) and the Forty-seventh Report of the Law Commission on the Trial and Punishment of Social and Economic Offences, the latter in so far as they relate to direct taxes. Opportunity has been taken to sponsor some amendments on the basis of suggestions received from various other quarters as well. Technical difficulties arising in the operation of some of the provisions of these enactments have also been taken into account in formulating these proposals.

2. The main objective of the amendments proposed to be made are to unearth black-money and prevent its proliferation; to fight and curb tax evasion; to check avoidance of tax through various legal devices, including the formation of trusts and diversion of income or wealth to members of family; to reduce tax arrears and to ensure that in future, tax arrears do not accumulate; to rationalise the exemptions and deductions available under the relevant enactments, and to streamline the administrative set-up and make it functionally efficient.
